(continue on following page if necessary)

In March 2023, Veronica Lacayo filed suit against Continental alleging negligence during a seawall repair construction project at Biscayne National Park. The plaintiff slipped and fell on gravel near the construction site. The case settled at mediation and was dismissed.

In late 2022, Laura Lee Robbins sued Continental for property damage allegedly sustained while Continental was performing dune construction work and utilizing the property next to the plaintiff for staging and access purposes. The parties were engaged in discovery and scheduled to attend mediation. However, the plaintiff voluntarily dismissed the case in August 2023.
